THE 61ST PRIMETIME EMMY AWARDS

Kristin Chenoweth of “Pushing Daisies” and Jon Cryer of “Two and a Half Men” won supporting acting Emmys for their comedies and proved that acceptance speeches can be entertaining.

“I’m not employed now so I’d like to be on ‘Mad Men.’ I also like ‘The Office’ and ‘24,’” said Chenoweth, alternating between tears and smiles as she accepted for her canceled ABC series. “Thank you so much to the academy for recognizing a show that’s no longer on the air.”

Backstage, the Tony Award-winning Chenoweth noted that she is appearing on an upcoming episode of Fox’s show “Glee,” has shot two movies and is doing a series of concerts.

Tell the Truth

Did you ever wonder what the real story is behind some of the items in the classified ad section of the newspaper? For instance, why does someone really want to sell that adorable puppy? Could it be that it is really a shoe-eating maniac? Why does someone put up for sale the “driver’s dream” car? Could it be that it is really only a driver’s dream if you can get it started?

Find a classified ad in today’s edition of the Mount Vernon News that makes you think it sounds a little “too good to be true.” Then, have some fun with it. Write your own “true life” version of the story. Have fun- and use your imagination.
