You've been taken captive by a mad scientist. He is keeping you in the dungeon deep beneath the ground in his abandoned castle.

There is one very tough looking guard outside your door. The locked door to your cell is made of thick oak.

The castle is surrounded by a very large and thick smooth-stoned wall. The castle is located on an island surrounded by hungry alligators. The nearest shore is 200 yards away.

The only thing you have with you in your cell is a copy of today's edition of the Mount Vernon News. Look at the classified ads. Find products or services which could help you make your escape from the castle. You must get past each barrier to reach freedom
