NOTICE TO COUNSEL

To: Ann Channon Wendling, Esq.

Date: 07/27/2011

The above captioned case has been received and filed in this Court. According to our records, you are not admitted to practice in the Southern District of Ohio. Please visit the Court's website at <http://www.ohsd.uscourts.gov> for a copy of this Court's local rules pertaining to pro hac vice admittance in the Southern District of Ohio.

Pursuant to Southern District of Ohio Local Rule 83.4, unless otherwise ordered, in all actions filed in, transferred to, or removed to this Court, all parties not appearing in propria persona shall be represented by a trial attorney who is a permanent member of the bar of this Court.

Southern District of Ohio Local Rules 83.3 permits your participation on a case-by-case basis upon the filing of an application, signed by the trial attorney, for your admission pro hac vice. The prescribed admission fee, located on the Court's website on the <http://www.ohsd.uscourts.gov/feeschedule.htm>, must be submitted for each attorney applying when the application is filed, as well as a current certificate of good standing from the highest court of any state. Pursuant to General Order 10-02, if the application is denied, the fee will not be returned.

If you are not registered to file documents and receive notices electronically, you will be receiving a separate notice concerning electronic filing. Admission pro hac vice, or receipt of notices from the Court, may be conditioned upon your registration in the Court's electronic filing system.
